Our Hong Kong seminar programme is designed to bring you the very latest updates and information on key topics that matter to you. We channel our team's wide-ranging expertise into a programme that we hope provides the knowledge and training you need.

Our programme at a glance

Date	Topic	Synopsis	Speakers
Thursday 19 October 2017	Intellectual property in Hong Kong and Mainland China: trends and developments	Insight into developments in intellectual property law in HK and Mainland China, including life science transactions. Identifying key issues, such as due diligence for companies acquiring IP rights, and unique or common pitfalls.	David Shen and Lina Lee
Thursday 26 October 2017	Insurance M&A and bancassurance trends	A look at trends in insurance M&A and bancassurance, primarily in the ASEAN region.	James Mythen and David Norman
Wednesday 1 November 2017	Arbitration in Hong Kong and Mainland China: practice and pitfalls (Part 1)	Part one, of a two-part seminar, explains the key issues to bear in mind when negotiating dispute resolution clauses in complex commercial contracts and how best to draft clauses so as to reduce risks. It specifically considers the use of HKIAC or CIETAC.	Matthew Hodgson and Sheila Ahuja
Thursday 16 November 2017	ASEAN M&A update	An update on M&A in the ASEAN region, highlighting commonalities and differences.	Alun Evans and Chris Moore
Wednesday 22 November 2017	Update and trends in the Hong Kong competition law and antitrust practice	The HK Competition Commission has been particularly active since it began its work in December 2015. Investigations span across sectors and a wide range of businesses can get caught in the net. In this seminar we review the lessons learnt so far from our direct experience and identify pointers to curb anti-competitive conduct.	Francois Renard and Simon Clarke

Wednesday 29 November 2017	A comparative analysis of loans and bonds	This session will involve a speaker from each of Allen & Overy's securities and bank lending teams who will follow a simultaneous bank and bond transaction from inception to funding and compare the different documents, principles, steps and jargon used in order to guide those who may be familiar with one but not the other type of financing, in bringing these two debt worlds closer together.	Fiona Cumming and David Cameron
Wednesday 6 December 2017	Financial regulatory update: a review of 2017 and looking ahead	A review of recent important banking cases and topical regulatory issues, including IPO sponsor liability. Identifying recent enforcement trends and their impact on APAC-based clients.	Fai Hung Cheung, Matt Bower and Cliff Chow

Registration commences at 12.30pm. The seminars will run for a duration of one hour, commencing at 12.45pm.

All seminars in the programme qualify for CPD points, pending approval. If you are interested in attending one of our seminars, please visit aohkseminarprogramme.com.
